Program

The results of your work deserve a broad audience. But how can you reach a laymen audience? Not everyone comprehends your work. And a simple explanation very often isn't simple at all. In the workshop 'how to sell your science' you will learn how to make a good pitch of your work. You will also be given some hints on approaching the media.

Registration

Please send an e-mail to Marie-Louise.Roovers@radboudumc.nl before the 1st of the month the workshop is given.

Be aware: 24 seats are available: first come, first served!

Next date: 21 March 2019

This course is for PhD candidates and post-docs within Radboudumc (RIHS/RIMLS/DCMN). Registration is required.
