

The examination date is the date of the results meeting of the Board of Examiners. You have to be registered at the Radboud University Nijmegen (for the correct study) upto and including this date.

If you don't pass this Master's examination, you have to apply again for a future results meeting.

You can apply for the Master's examination up to one month before the date of the results meeting of the Board of Examiners.

You can retract your application up to two weeks before the date of the results meeting.
